What it is: A 10-day beating-of-the-drum for our craft beer community.

Back for its second year, Beer Week shows off “one of the most dynamic beer scenes in America and arguably the world” (Food & Wine). Celebratory events take place at restaurants, pubs and beer habitats throughout the county.

The early can't miss events: Stone Brewing Co. (1999 Citracado Parkway, Escondido. (760) 471-4999) starts out the gate strong with a $55 Rare Beer Breakfast with live music and 25 beers from 9 a.m. to noon Nov. 5.

And there will be brewmasters, live music, food and beer at the San Diego Brewers Festival, 2 to 6 p.m. Nov. 6 at Liberty Station, $35 admission.
